
Las Vegas Natural History Museum

Education Programs

The Museum's education programs target Pre-K through 8th grade using a variety of topics including animal characteristics, habitats, adaptations, classification and basic scientific methods and principles. All field trip programs are aligned with the Nevada State Academic Standards.

Home School & Group Discounts

The Museum can accommodate groups of 10-120 people. For Home Schools, On-line School Programs and Mom's Groups or Clubs, a group is considered to be a minimum of 10 or more children, 3 years and above to receive a group discount &/or guided tour of 4 galleries. Adult only groups such as Senior Groups need a minimum of 10 people. The group discount rate is as follows:

0 - 2 Years Old	3 - 11	12 and up Seniors Military with ID	Adults
FREE	$ 2.50	$ 4.00	$ 5.00

To receive a group discount, reservations must be made in advance and the group must check in together. Any chaperones that arrive late will be asked to pay full price. While receiving a guided tour, all members of your group must stay with the Museum Educator and leave at the designated time.

Special gallery arrangements must be made in advance where a gallery is not designated as part of the Early Explorer Program, Learning Safari Programs, Science Sleuths or Ancient Egypt Experience. The Museum may be unable to accommodate these types of requests the day of your tour. See GRADE LEVEL for more specific information on galleries included in each program. Please contact the Education Department for special needs or concerns.

Please note: If there are no conflicts with other groups visiting the Museum and your itinerary has been prearranged and approved by the Education Director, home school groups may stay longer and see other galleries if the group pays full admission. Discounts are not accepted.
